Rules of Trading

BadBoy.NL does not have that many rules. We are a small flexible company.

Most of our products are on stock. But in the case we do not have it, we reserve the time to order it for you at the factory. This can take some time (sometimes over a month).

Orders are negotiable. Meaning that if you change your mind, we will do our best to please you. Treat us like humans, and we will treat you like a good customer!

If you have questions, remarks, or (what we can't imagine) a problem,...

just MAIL it to us: info @ badboy.nl
